

Ready for the camper life?

We create holiday dreams full of adventure and freedom every day and thus ensure everlasting memories. For over ten years, it has been our goal to be the motorhome portal with the most competent and personal advice. And soon we will also convince Danish customers with our service!

Would you like to join us on this journey and infect our customers with your enthusiasm for camping? Then apply to us now as:

Travel Consultant CamperDays Danish (m/f/d)

Your Mission

- Competent advice to our mostly Danish-speaking customers on all

You convince us with

- impeccable Danish and English skills questions concerning motorhome travel by telephone and email for our CamperDays portal.

- Preparation of tailor-made offers for camper bookings
- Taking up change requests from customers (rebookings, special requests, complaints)
- Correspondence with tour operators
- Using your country-specific know-how for optimizing our website
- additional language skills are an advantage
- a friendly, positive charisma and enjoyment of customer service
- initial experience in customer service, the hotel industry or tourism
- enthusiasm for traveling, preferably also personal camper experience in one of our destinations
- your ability to work in a team and strong communication skills
- flexibility in terms of your working hours (occasional assignments on weekends and public holidays)

Our culture at CamperDays

- Self-determined and pleasant work in an awesome team ;)
- Intensive professional training by a personal buddy
- The opportunity to support our international growth and open up new European markets
- Fresh start-up mentality and culture with short communication channels
- Numerous opportunities to actively contribute your ideas and yourself
- Flexible working hours in consultation with your team
- Modern office space with a familiar atmosphere in a central location in Cologne, Germany or Alicante, Spain, but also remote work options
- Relaxed atmosphere within the company with strong cohesion and fun at joint events
- Attractive benefits such as Urban SportsClub, company pension scheme, external counsel & coaching partners, language courses, discounts and more

DO YOU WANT TO OFFER OUR CUSTOMERS THE BEST POSSIBLE CONSULTATION?

Then apply directly with your CV, salary expectations, desired number of hours and a possible start date. We look forward to hearing from you!

Apply now